

Music

Democracy	Rule of Law	Individual Liberty	Mutual Respect	Tolerance of Different Faiths and Beliefs
Music lessons provide opportunities for children to express themselves freely, forming opinions about music they will listen to, in composition and performing tasks. Within lessons students have the opportunity to express their opinions and these are respected by others. There may be votes to verify which piece of music they wish to listen to, or which song children wish to perform in lessons, assemblies or concerts.	Children are taught how to be an appreciative and supportive audience who listen attentively whilst others perform.	Within our lessons students are taught about self-discipline and that to be successful you must work hard, show resilience and have a growth mind-set that anything can be achieved if you put your mind to it. Lessons provide opportunities for children to express themselves freely in composition and performing tasks.	Individuals are encouraged to make sensible and informed choices in lessons and to take ownership and leadership for this. This is demonstrated through ensuring the working environment is safe. They are encouraged to respect everyone's abilities and performances during lessons and give feedback sensitively.	Children develop respect and greater understanding of differences. In music, our children listen to and learn about the music of other faiths and cultures and how music is used in different cultures and faiths. They are able to compare similarities and differences between music in a variety of times and cultures and to reflect on and celebrate differences between themselves and others. Children are taught to understand and respect other cultures and beliefs. Opportunities are given in our music lessons for children to show how music can bring people together and enable them to share experiences.
